5. Teaching Methodology: Orientation of Field Work Project of BEE
6. Name of the Activity: “Orientation of Field Work Project of BEE”
7. Day & Date: 21/10/2024, 7.30 AM
8. No. of Students: 49
9. Objective:
 - To Understand the process and methodology for conducting fieldwork projects.
 - To Learn how to gather relevant data and conduct interviews with entrepreneurs.
 - To Familiarize with tools for analyzing business operations and market trends.
 - To Develop skills for presenting findings and recommendations based on field observations.

10. Details of Experiential/Participative Activity:

The orientation for the Field Work Project in Business Entrepreneurship focused on guiding students through the steps of conducting a comprehensive field study. It covered essential methods for gathering data, such as interviews, surveys, and direct observations, while emphasizing the importance of understanding real-world business practices. The session also provided guidance on structuring fieldwork reports and presenting findings effectively, ensuring students could provide actionable insights and recommendations based on their observations and research.

11. Learning Outcomes:

1. Ability to apply research methods like interviews and surveys to gather real-world business data.
2. Enhanced analytical skills to evaluate business operations, market trends, and entrepreneurial challenges.
3. Improved communication skills for presenting findings clearly and effectively to stakeholders.
4. Practical understanding of business dynamics and the ability to translate field observations into actionable recommendations for entrepreneurs.

12. Conclusion:

The Field Work Project orientation equips students with practical research skills, enabling them to analyze real-world business operations. By engaging directly with entrepreneurs, students gain valuable insights, enhancing their ability to assess challenges and opportunities. This hands-on experience bridges theory and practice, preparing students for future entrepreneurial ventures.

Report On Internship and Field work project Guidance session

Department of Cost and Works Accounting organized Guest Lecture on “Guidance on Internship and Field Work Project”, This guest lecture was held on 30th august, 2024 from 9:00 am to 11:00 am.

The workshop was organized specifically for the students of SY, TY B.Com having specialization Cost and Works Accounting. The main objective of the guidance session was to give necessary information, guidelines, dos and don'ts of Internship and Field Work Project. The secondary motive of the session was to understand the relevance and importance of Internship and Field Work Project in today's world and to study the future of perspective of the same through brain storming and interactive sessions. This justifies the title of the workshop “Guidance on Internship and Field Work Project”.

The workshop started with Arya Joshi, students of T.Y.B.com gave a welcoming speech for the guest. Dr.A.D.Jahagirdar sir, Head of Cost and works Accounting department, felicitates the Speaker, CS CMA Bharat Zanvar Sir. Dr.Anuja Dhorje, Subject teacher of Cost and Works Accounting introduced and welcomed respectable speaker and students as well. Then Bharat Zanvar sir took the charge of the session. Bharat Zanvar Sir started off with the agenda of the session. He explained the students the importance and benefits of internships for the students.

Bharat Zanvar Sir shared some of his experiences with students for how internship was important and helpful for him in nurturing his career. After the 12th he started seeking for a job (At various CA offices. CMA offices). He educated students about CV(resume) and how to keep resume updated time to time on various social platform like LinkedIn. Also explained the importance of connections with industry personnel which will be helpful further. He suggested various organisations and work places where the students can work or do internships. He also shared some sample documentation which will be needed while submitting the internship project.

Overall outcome or impact is that students got acquainted with old as well as new world of Internship and Field work project. They learnt how to develop the approach towards different operational areas. Overall guidance session was a brain storming session for our students.

The entire session was handled by team of power puff girls Dr. Anuja Dhorje, Ashlesha Deshpande madam, Rucha Shingvekar madam successfully.
